

LAMDA

Performance and Communication Exams

What is LAMDA?

LAMDA is one of the UK's oldest and most respected awarding bodies which qualifications develop life-long skills. The ultimate aim is to provide candidates with the opportunity to develop self-confidence and communication skills, all essential in the working world.

Accreditations and Recognitions:

LAMDA has been recognized as an awarding body by Ofqual, the Office of Qualifications and Examinations Regulations in England, and the corresponding regulatory authorities in Wales (DfES) and Northern Ireland (CCEA).

Exams:

Candidate will work one on one with Gemma Gordon (Drama and Acting for Screen) teacher at Afonso School of Performing Arts for a total of ten weeks including the exam.

Lessons will be 30 minutes each and be structured in preparing for the exam in a safe environment.

Candidate will be expected to go to London for the actual exam where they will share their work with the examiner on the eleventh week.

Options:

There are two options for exams, communication, and performance, which is up to the candidate to decide what they would like to do.

Communication Examinations:

Speaking verse and prose: Developing a strong speaking voice and memory skills, designed for individual candidates.

Reading for Performance: Learning how to construct a performance recital, designed for individual candidates.

Speaking in Public: Developing essential skills for constructing and delivering talks, presentations, and speeches. Designed for individual candidates.

Performance Examinations:

Acting: Developing a strong speaking voice and good memory skills by learning and performing monologues and duologues.

Devising Drama: Developing creativity by exploring ideas and themes, and realizing them through devised dramatic performances.

Miming: Gaining an understanding of non-verbal communication by exploring body language and facial expression, and putting it into a dramatic performance.

Location:

St Mary's Church Lockhart Room, Parish Rooms, Northchurch

Prices:

10 x 30 minute session = 200 pounds (20 pounds per session)

Plus additional LAMDA exam fee.

The LAMDA exam experience will be a fun and exciting way to develop lifelong skills. The candidate should enter with an open mind and motivation to enhance their skills. The exam at the end is simply a goal to work towards and be rewarded for their hard work.

For more information please contact gevegordon@gmail.com.

